

Kimono series

Designed by Pascal Bosetti, Germany

For modern Japanese people, the kimono is a symbol of thoughtfulness, grace and respect for tradition, which is exactly where designer Pascal Bosetti has drawn his inspiration for Kimono. The similarities between the chair and its source of inspiration are particularly evident in the seams on the seat, which add both a graphic look and separate the arms and cover from each other – just like a real kimono. Kimono is moulded, and will therefore hold its characteristic curved shape for many years to come. The soft seat upholstery also means that your dinner parties will probably never make it into the living room.

Meet the designer

Mine designs er stringente, funktionelle og poetiske på samme tid. Jeg har en stor passion for ærligt håndværk og gode materialer, og min baggrund som både designer og håndværker påvirker alle de valg, jeg træffer. Jeg vælger mine materialer med omhu, og jeg behandler hvert enkelt materiale forskelligt med stor respekt og nysgerrighed for, hvordan de opfører sig alene eller i samspil med andre. Alt dette gør jeg for at skabe det perfekte design, hvor æstetik, funktionalitet og godt håndværk går op i en højere enhed.
